

TUBE FEEDING & DYSPHAGIA COMMUNITY SUPPORT GROUP MORNING TEA

Wednesday 14 October, 10:30am - 11:45am

 Armstrong Creek Community Hub, VIC

You're invited to a supportive gathering for people who are tube fed, living with dysphagia, and their care teams.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- People who are entally fed (tube fed)
- Individuals living with dysphagia (swallowing difficulties)
- Parents, families & caregivers
- Allied Health Professionals
- Support coordinators and support workers seeking knowledge and understanding.

A COMMUNITY SUPPORT & EDUCATION GROUP

Session Agenda

10.15am - Registration and light refreshments
10.30am - 11.15am - Support group session
11.15am - 11.45am - Morning tea, Q&A, socialising and nutrition/equipment displays

PRESENTING EXPERT DIETITIAN – EMMA GORE, APD AN

Founder & Director of Complete Dietetics

Emma is an Accredited Practising Dietitian (APD), Accredited Nutritionist (AN) Credentialed Eating Disorder Clinician- Dietitian (CEDC-D), credentialed in gastrostomy tube management, and specialist oncology dietitian. She is a highly experienced dietitian having worked in the field of nutrition and dietetics for over a decade, across a range of areas in both private practice and the hospital setting.

IN-HOME SUPPORT

Speak to nurses from Geelong and Surf Coast Nurse Next Door branches about access to community nursing and home care support services.

CONTINUITY OF CARE & SUPPLIES

Jade Ryan from Surgical House will provide information on supplies and continuity of care support. View a range of feeding and support supplies. Meet expert representatives from leading nutrition and equipment suppliers.

Thank you to our supplier partners:

life. to the fullest.®

EVENT DETAILS

DATE: Wed 14 October 2026

TIME: 10:30am – 11:45am

LOCATION: Armstrong Creek Community Hub,
Wadawurrung Country, 46-70 Central Boulevard,
Armstrong Creek Vic 3217

QUERIES: jryan@surgicalhouse.com.au M: 0450 925 522

REGISTER HERE

surgicalhouse.com.au/events